Flood Mode: Global - the 'fill' will extend to all the pixels in the layer which satisfy the Tolerance setting.. A list appears with suggestions Single-click the correct word and, voilà, TextEdit instantly replaces the mistake.. Okay, got it? At the blinking insertion point, type with abandon Type something original like this:It was a dark and stormy nightIf you typed too quickly, you may have accidentally produced this:It was a drk and stormy nihgtFortunately, your amiable word processor has your best interests at heart.. See the dotted red line below drk and nihgt? That's TextEdit's not-so-subtle way of flagging a likely typo.. Have a look around the window At the top, you see Untitled because no one at Apple is presumptuous enough to come up with a name for your yet-to-be-produced manuscript.. Let us begin These shortcuts have been tried and tested on Windows 7 Ideally, they should work on other versions as well.. On the left is the original image The second image show the original fill using a Tolerance setting of 36%.
